

Knights of Columbus Will Assemble in the Twenty-fifth Annual Convention This Morning

Monsignor Falconio, Pope's Personal Representative, Will Conduct Opening Mass.

THOUSANDS WILL ATTEND

While Delegates Are Not Unanimous, Many Other Members of Order Will Attend.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., August 5.—Delegates and others here to-night to attend the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Knights of Columbus number thousands. They are still arriving by every train and boat from all sections of the country, and it will probably be to-morrow night before most of them get here. Many ladies and children accompany the members of the order.

The convention will meet at Pine Beach Hotel. Prominent knights already here are Supreme Knight E. L. Hearn, of New Haven, Conn.; District Deputy George E. Clarke, of South Bend, Ind.; Dr. E. W. Buckley, of St. Paul, Minn.; John G. Ewing, of Notre Dame University, and W. P. Brown, of South Bend, Ind.; Colonel Pat Clifford, of South Bend, Ind.; Ed. Fogarty, Mayor of South Bend, and a prospective Governor of his State; Maurice M. Wallis, William McInerney, of South Bend, and Dr. John G. Coyle, of New York.

John G. Ewing, candidate for supreme knight, is a nephew of the late James G. Blaine.

From the nearby Eastern cities, Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, large delegations are present. The Boston and New England delegation is especially strong.

W. J. O'Brien, secretary of the Massachusetts delegation, is out to-night with a statement to the effect that Supreme Knight E. L. Hearn will be re-elected. A warm fight is expected for the office of supreme knight. More interest centres in the election of that officer than in anything else connected with the convention. John G. Ewing, of Notre Dame, will oppose Hearn. Both are popular, and have a large following.

Thursday Big Day.
While there are but 160 delegates to the convention, the celebration of Knights of Columbus Day at the exposition, which will be Thursday, has brought great numbers. It is expected that the day will be one of the biggest that the exposition has yet had.

It is expected that as many as 50,000 Knights and members of their families will enter the exposition Thursday. Members of the order will be here not only from all parts of the United States, but from every province of Canada, Mexico, and even from the far-away Philippines.

Opening the convention, pontifical mass will be held in St. Mary's (Norfolk) Church at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. For this, extensive preparations were made to-day. The church was decorated, and everything made ready.

Monsignor Falconio, one of the most prominent churchmen in the country, will preside over the mass as the personal representative of Pope Pius X. He arrived in the city this afternoon, and is the guest of St. Vincent's hospital.

During the mass, the sermon will be preached by Bishop Donahue, of Wheeling, W. Va. Bishop Donahue arrived to-day. He is the guest of Rev. Father John J. Doherty, of St. Mary's. Bishop Kelley is also here.

After the pontifical mass to-morrow, the delegates will march to the Academy of Music, where they will be welcomed to the city by Governor Claude A. Swanson. An address in response will be made by Supreme Knight E. L. Hearn, the convention then beginning.

All of the business will be transacted at the Pine Beach Hotel.

In the order, it is a secret one, but those who are members of it will be admitted. In addition to the actual work transacted, the Knights will be given an opportunity to enjoy the sights and pleasures afforded by this section. They will have a fish-fry, surf-bathing, a review of the army and navy, and many other forms of entertainment.

CAPTURE SYRIAN FAR FROM SCENE OF ALLEGED CRIME
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., August 5.—A cablegram was received here to-day from Mendoza, Argentine Republic, stating that Moses Ferris, who murdered Frank Assad, a Syrian, in this city in April, had been captured there and would be held for extradition.

Begin Protracted Meetings.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SMITH'S CROSS ROADS, Va., August 5.—Rev. Charles Pennington Ryland, of Suffolk, Va., preached at Epiphany, the Baptist Church at this place, to-day morning. This was the commencement of a series of meetings which will continue throughout this week. There will be two services a day with refreshments on the ground. Rev. Mr. Ryland is assisted in this meeting by Rev. J. W. Davies, the pastor of the church.

You will recognize Arbuckle's Ariosa Coffee in the cup, any time, by the taste. That "taste" identifies it as the straight, pure Brazilian and distinguishes it from the make-believe Mocha and Java, and sundry other misbranded or misnamed impostures.

The improvement in the quality of Ariosa is the natural consequence of our own commercial development, and promises more for the future. Sold in a sealed package only, for your benefit.

ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

MONSIGNOR DIOMEDEO FALCONIO, Distinguished prelate, who will conduct mass to-day at the opening of the convention of the Knights of Columbus.

FIVE OCCUPANTS OF LAUNCH ESCAPE

Only Clifford Garrett, Lad of Four Years, Was Drowned Sunday Night.

BODY FLOATING IN THE ROADS

Child's Remains Recovered, and Customs Launch Is Looking for Wreck of Greyhound.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., August 5.—Only Clifford Garrett, the four-year-old son of G. P. Garrett, of this city, was drowned in Hampton Roads, off the Jamestown Exposition grounds, last night, when the gasoline launch Greyhound was run down and sunk by a New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk car float, in tow of the tug Salisbury.

The five other occupants of the launch, three of whom were reported here as drowned, had miraculous escapes from death, three of them climbing on board the float which ran down the launch, and the other two being picked up by the excursion steamer Montauk.

Herbert Garrett, of Richmond, one of the three who climbed aboard the float, is now at St. Vincent's hospital, Norfolk, with his left leg broken and various bruises about the body. R. E. Garrett, of Cincinnati, and G. P. Garrett, of this city, are at the home of the latter, No. 1625 Twenty-seventh Street, suffering from bruises about the limbs and body. J. L. Garrett, of Jamestown Island, and Edgar Garrett, of this city, the other two who boarded the float, came here from Norfolk early this morning. They were more or less bruised as a result of their experience.

Find Child's Body.
This morning at 11 o'clock the body of little Clifford Garrett was found floating in Hampton Roads. The custom-house launch is now searching for the wreckage of the Greyhound, which is believed to be at bottom, instead of at the bottom, as at first supposed.

Good weather and the timely appearance of the steamer Montauk saved the lives of the five men. Had the night been stormy every occupant of the little craft would have gone down as did the eleven officers and seamen who lost their lives in the ill-fated launch of the battleship Minnesota recently. This accident seems to have been almost identical with that which befell the launch of the Minnesota. It was a New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk float that sent the Minnesota to the bottom.

Association Elects Officers.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., August 5.—Goshen Baptist Sunday-School Association, which met with County Line Baptist Church in Caroline county, elected the following officers: Otti Renolds, of Louisa, moderator; Z. W. Chevening, of Orange, secretary; Rev. George Walte, of Spotsylvania, treasurer; Captain C. T. Smith delivered the address of welcome and Rev. C. Davis, of Louisa, preached the annual sermon. The meeting next year will be held at Berea Baptist Church, in Louisa county.

Celebrate Silver Wedding.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., August 5.—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jones, of Stafford county, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding at "Ludlow," their home, on Saturday night. Many friends were present to attest their esteem for the couple, and numerous presents were received. Genuine Virginia hospitality was in evidence.

Two Sawmills Near Boydton Are Burned.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYDTON, Va., August 5.—Two sawmills were burned in the neighborhood, one Friday and the other Saturday of last week. The first belonged to E. G. Dowling, with a loss between $600 and $800. There was no insurance. The second mill belonged to J. B. Campbell, loss about $1,000, with no insurance. The owners are at a loss to account for the origin of the fire.

SEND NEGRO TO GRAND JURY FOR STEALING BIG SUM OF MONEY
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., August 5.—Italy Nicksen, colored, of Stafford county, charged with stealing from Herring & Pyke a tin box containing $1,000 in money, stamps and valuable papers, in a magistrate's trial was sent on to the grand jury.

CHAPLAIN JONES IS UNDER INDICTMENT
While Facing Court-Martial, Spiritual Adviser of the Jackies Is Held for Larceny.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., August 5.—The court-martial of Chaplain Harry W. Jones, United States Navy, was resumed to-day, after a recess of three days, taken on orders from the Secretary of the Navy, to give the chaplain and his attorney, James Kerr, of Norfolk, time to prepare a defense. The proceedings of this court, as are the proceedings of all courts-martial, are being held behind closed doors, the members of the court and the attendants are not expected to talk, and information as to the progress of the hearing is hard to get.

J. H. Cook, of Norfolk, was the first witness examined by the court. His testimony related to a note written by the chaplain and which he holds, or held. The Secretary of the Navy wrote the chaplain regarding this note, and received a reply which was construed as a falsehood.

Other troubles came to Chaplain Jones to-day. While the naval court was considering the charges of scandalous conduct and falsehood against him, he was indicted by the Norfolk grand jury on the charge of grand larceny. The indictment was returned on information furnished by A. S. J. Gammon, of the Citizens' Bank of Norfolk. Gammon presented as evidence three checks, dated respectively July 26, 27 and 30, 1906, drawn by "Chaplain Jones" on the Mechanics' National Bank, Schermerhorn Branch, New York, each protested and marked "not sufficient funds."

Fredericksburg Pastor Will Erect Residence
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., August 5.—Rev. R. A. Williams, pastor of the Baptist Church, has contracted for the erection of a residence with all modern improvements on his lot on Washington Avenue, which he will occupy as his home. Mr. Williams has been granted a month's vacation by his congregation and is now sojourning with friends in Orange county.

Captain Carpenter Keeps Lid on at Pine Beach
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., August 5.—Determined to suppress fake social clubs and gambling joints at Pine Beach, Captain Henry W. Carpenter, U. S. M. C., commandant of the Powhatan Guard, who now exercises police jurisdiction there, is enforcing the law to the letter, and following the raids made by the police late last night and early this morning, the resort is more orderly than it has been for a long time. In the raids four social clubs and three hotels where liquor was being sold were included and several arrests were made.

Charge Photographer with Assault on His Wife
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., August 5.—A warrant has been issued against J. R. Skellett, a well-known photographer and merchant of this city, charging him with assaulting his wife, Mrs. Jennie Skellett. They are alleged to have begun quarreling Saturday night over the washerwoman's bill, and that he struck her, and she fell through the plate-glass door at his place on North Main Street. She was found almost prostrated on the pavement by two police officers.

Valuable Loudoun County Farms Change Hands.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEESBURG, Va., August 5.—The J. B. Kirk farm of 200 acres, located near Herndon, has been sold to Joseph W. Cummins, of Brooklyn, N. J., for $12,500.

Beach Park.
All special trains leave Southern Railroad, Fourteenth Street, Daily, except Sunday, 5:30 P. M. Sundays, 10 A. M. and 4 P. M. Returning from Beach Park—Daily, 10 P. M.; Sunday, 8 and 10 P. M.

All Classes, Ages and Sexes
DRINK
Coca-Cola
The Satisfactory Beverage
It satisfies the thirst and pleases the palate. Relieves the fatigue that comes from over-work, over-shopping, over-thinking or over-play. Puts vim and go into tired brains and bodies.
Cooling - Refreshing - Delicious - Thirst-Quenching
5c. EVERYWHERE

PRINCE TO VISIT SHOW

Among the visitors to the Jamestown Exposition this month will be King Oscar's grandson, Prince William, Duke of Södermanland, the second son of the Crown Prince of Sweden, given a new interest by the fact that he is soon to wed Duchess Maria Paulowna, of Russia, the Czar's first cousin, who is shown in the above illustration. The Prince will be fittingly entertained at the exposition and also at Newport.

CHAPLAIN JONES IS UNDER INDICTMENT

While Facing Court-Martial, Spiritual Adviser of the Jackies Is Held for Larceny.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., August 5.—The court-martial of Chaplain Harry W. Jones, United States Navy, was resumed to-day, after a recess of three days, taken on orders from the Secretary of the Navy, to give the chaplain and his attorney, James Kerr, of Norfolk, time to prepare a defense. The proceedings of this court, as are the proceedings of all courts-martial, are being held behind closed doors, the members of the court and the attendants are not expected to talk, and information as to the progress of the hearing is hard to get.

J. H. Cook, of Norfolk, was the first witness examined by the court. His testimony related to a note written by the chaplain and which he holds, or held. The Secretary of the Navy wrote the chaplain regarding this note, and received a reply which was construed as a falsehood.

Other troubles came to Chaplain Jones to-day. While the naval court was considering the charges of scandalous conduct and falsehood against him, he was indicted by the Norfolk grand jury on the charge of grand larceny. The indictment was returned on information furnished by A. S. J. Gammon, of the Citizens' Bank of Norfolk. Gammon presented as evidence three checks, dated respectively July 26, 27 and 30, 1906, drawn by "Chaplain Jones" on the Mechanics' National Bank, Schermerhorn Branch, New York, each protested and marked "not sufficient funds."

Constitute Grand Larceny.
The checks dated July 26th and 27th were for $75 each, and the third for $60. It was held by the grand jury that the return of the first two checks was sufficient notice to the chaplain that he did not have money enough in the bank to pay the third check, and that the passing of the third check was an act of false pretense, constituting grand larceny in Virginia.

The South's Greatest Furniture Store
JÜRGENS
Adams and Broad Streets.

C. LUMSDEN & SON,
Jewelers and Silversmiths.
STERLING SILVER FOR SPRING BRIDES.
Teaspoons, dozen, $7.00 and upwards. Dessert Spoons or Forks, dozen, $18.00 upwards. Tablespoons or Forks, dozen, $26.00 upwards. Dishes, each, $3.50 to $75.00. Candlesticks, each, $5.00 to $20.00. Vases, each, $5.00 to $50.00.
CHESTS OF SILVERWARE.
Handsome Oak or Mahogany Chest, with lock and key, containing FIVE DOZEN PIECES—Table and Dessert Forks, Table, Tea and Dessert Spoons, $100 and upward.
Chests of different combination and for a larger and greater number of pieces at prices to correspond.
731 Main Street.
Lumsden always welcomes a comparison of prices.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
TO HAVE NEW HOME
Lynchburg Institution Adopts Plans Prepared by Lewis and Burnham—Grand Structure.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., August 5.—The First National bank to-day accepted the plans of Lewis and Burnham, local architects, for its proposed banking-house, which will be erected at the corner of Tenth and Main Streets. These plans were decided upon in competition with four other architectural firms, two local and one each in New York and Atlanta. The building is to be two stories, of Corinthian style, and the banking-room will be finished in Georgia marble. The cost is estimated at $70,000, exclusive of furnishings. The ground floor will have a pitch of twenty-four feet, and there will be an office suite on the second floor. The work will be commenced as soon as the bid can be let.

A Past Record
Guarantees future transactions. For thirty-six years the careful, conservative management of
The Merchants National Bank
has insured success.
Prompt and courteous attention insured to all depositors with
The Merchants National Bank
Eleventh and Main Streets, RICHMOND, VA.
Safest for Savings.

Roses, Cut Flowers and Designs.
HAMMOND,
Florist,
109 East Broad Street.
Largest Stock.

SAMUEL H. BOWMAN
General Steamship Ticket Agent,
808 East Main Street.
Only Office in the State Representing
All European Steamship Lines
PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.
BEACH PARK.
All special trains leave Southern Railroad, Fourteenth Street, Daily, except Sunday, 5:30 P. M. Sundays, 10 A. M. and 4 P. M. Returning from Beach Park—Daily, 10 P. M.; Sunday, 8 and 10 P. M.